Identification Policy

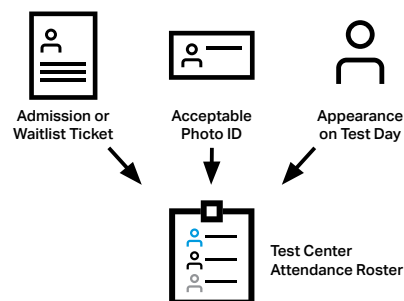

For admission, your photo ID must:

- Be a valid (unexpired) photo identification that is government issued or issued by the school you currently attend.
- Be an original document (not photocopied).
- List your full, legal name exactly as it appears on this ticket, including the order of the names.

- Show a recent photo of you that matches both your appearance on test day and the photo on this ticket.
- Be in good condition, with readable English text and a clearly visible photograph.

Note: A U.S. Global Entry identification card is acceptable.

Test coordinators will match their roster with your ticket, ID, and appearance.

Test Day Checklist

What to Bring

- Your printed admission ticket. An image of your ticket on a phone or tablet won't be accepted.
- Acceptable photo ID.
- Two No. 2 pencils that have erasers.
- An acceptable calculator (for Subject Test in Mathematics only).

Nice to Have

- A simple, nondigital watch (without an audible alarm).
- Extra batteries and backup equipment in case they're needed (only use with permission).
- A drink or snacks (for your breaks).
- A bag for your belongings.
- Breakfast before you arrive.

What Not to Bring

- Electronic equipment including phones of any kind, personal computing devices, wearable technology, cameras, timers, audio players/recorders, smartwatches, or any other devices that can be used to send, receive, or record information.
- Any highlighters, rulers, earplugs, dictionaries or other books, pens or mechanical or colored pencils, pamphlets, or papers of any kind, including scratch paper.
- Weapons or firearms.

If You Bring or Use Prohibited Devices

You'll need to turn off all electronic devices during the test and even during breaks. This includes phones. Be sure to turn off your watch alarm, if you have one.

The testing staff will collect and hold phones and other prohibited electronic devices during the test administration. They can deny admission to anyone who is in possession of a prohibited electronic device.

If your device makes noise (even if it has been collected) or you're seen with it at any time, including during breaks, you'll be dismissed immediately, your scores will be canceled, and the device may be confiscated and its contents inspected. College Board is not responsible for loss or damage to personal items, including electronic devices, while you're in the test center.

Refund Policy

If you decide to cancel your test registration, you can request a partial refund of $10 no later than 5 days before the test date you registered for. You're also entitled to a refund for any score reporting services you ordered for a test date you missed. Call Customer Service for assistance.

ID Policy Exceptions

Follow these identification requirements if they apply to you:

All students: If you travel to another country to test, you must provide a passport as identification.

Eighth grade or below: If you're in the eighth grade or below and testing for Talent Search purposes, a valid Talent Search ID Form is acceptable. If you don't have such a form, you must present a valid photo ID such as an SAT Student ID Form.

21 or older: If you'll be 21 or older on test day, the only acceptable form of identification is an official government issued photo ID, such as a driver's license or passport. Student ID cards aren't valid.

Testing in Ghana, Nepal, Nigeria, and Pakistan: The only acceptable form of identification is a valid passport.

Testing in India: The only acceptable forms of identification are a valid Aadhaar card with your name and photograph or a valid passport.

Testing in Egypt, Jordan, Korea, Thailand, United Arab Emirates, and Vietnam: The only acceptable forms of identification are a valid passport or valid government issued photo ID from the country where you're testing.
